

How To Find Your Perfect Story Idea

1. Why do you like to read? (Genre-wise, Fantasy, Historical Fiction, Contemporary, etc.)
2. What are some of your favorite stories? (Books, movies, TV shows)
3. What about these stories drew you in? (Characters, setting, plot)
4. Based on what you like to read, what genre would be your favorite to write?
5. Imagine you are in a library and you can't find any books, what kind of book would you like to magically appear?
6. What is your message? What is something you want to share with the whole world? Why does it even matter?

Now that you have your genre, your message, and the things you love most about the story, it's time to dream. Go grab a few color pencils and sit in your favorite place. Watch nature, watch your favorite TV show, listen to inspirational music. Check out my Spotify playlists for inspiration.

Start asking what if.

What if...

What if...

What if...